

Mum is chosen to work on celebrity make-up artist's team

Beautician is made up

BEAUTICIAN Sarah Brock has been chosen selected by celebrity make-up artist Daniel Sandler, to be part of his team.

It has been a busy year for Mrs Brock of Springfield Drive, Calne, since appearing in Brides magazine as one of the South West's leading make-up artists for bridal make-up.

The 34-year-old, has a make-up studio in Hallmark Photographic in The Pippin, went through a long selection process when she applied for the job.

The mum-of-two said: "It was really nerve-racking going through the selection process because I had to be assessed by him while I was doing a make-over.

"I think in the end the excitement cancelled out the nerves and I really enjoyed myself."

By Hayley Court

hcourt@newswilts.co.uk

Daniel Sandler is one of the UK's most successful make-up artists having worked with supermodels Naomi Campbell and Kate Moss. After years of working in Britain and America Mr Sandler has created a range of cosmetics that is available through the Urban Retreat in Harrods.

Women had to travel to Harrods in London to have a lesson with a Daniel Sandler make-up artist.

Mrs Brock said: "Now local women can have an individual lesson or group lesson with their friends and purchase the make-up range, through me. It's been a really exciting year and very busy in the run-up to Christmas."

Sarah Brock with Daniel Sandler